Awesome book!!!

By Callie Steward

I read this book for a graduate class in leadership. Although I am not a principal yet, it is an awesome read for anyone in education. I feel it can also be beneficial to those in the business world outside education. Just take out the word teachers, and you can easily substitute "workers". I liked this book so much, I also bought his book " Dealing with Difficult Parents"

By Stephen

I read this book five years ago. While I have worked with many excellent teachers, this is a must-have for the administrator who unfortunately has to deal with the likes of those who work overtime to undermine your efforts toward school improvement, negatively influence other staff members and gossip.
