From NY Times and USA Today bestselling author Cali MacKay...

Hawke Townsend is haunted by the demons of his past. But when a woman washes up on the shore of the private island he shares with his identical twin, Archer, there's something about her that finally cuts through his darkness. Yet her presence on the island poses its own set of complications, given Hawke's reclusive nature, and the fact that very few people realize that the famous artist, Jackson Townsend, is actually two people.

Phoebe Nicholls is running from an abusive ex determined to see her dead—and he nearly gets his wish. After battling a brutal ocean, she awakes to find herself recovering in the bed of a handsome stranger—who's offered her the lifeline she so desperately needs and the chance to finally stop running. She can stay on the island as long as she'd like, and in exchange, she'll model for his paintings and be his muse.

The twins have always been close, and are in so many ways one person, with Archer protecting his brother and going out into the world on his behalf. But presenting a single face to the world at large is far easier than keeping up the charade on their own private island with Phoebe on the loose. How long can they keep up their deception once they both start to develop feelings for her? And when Phoebe finds out, will she be able to forgive them?

oh boy Cali ! this the 2nd part of the Townsend twins is just as hot and steamy as the first, the twins still hiding the fact that their are 2 of them sharing Phoebe. Also hiding the hidden demons that haunt them both from their past, Phoebe scared that Kevin will find her but also that if he does he will hurt the man she knows as Jackson. I love this story with all the underlying history of abuse and mistreatment on all 3 of the main characters , will Phoebe react badly when/if she finds out the men are actually twins and they have already been sharing her. I do however wish that I had waited, buying the parts and keeping them to read once the whole story was out. I hate the waiting for the next part when you are left hanging on the edge of a major part of the book, if you haven't started this I would recommend buying but wait till the rest of the book comes out, that way you can just read straight through from one part to the next without the breaks. it is well worth it, I will just have to re read the whole thing but that's no hardship either

In love with two men, but doesn't even know it

By Tianna

As we know from the first installment, Phoebe washed up on the island shared by twin brothers. She was too freaked out so they took turns caring for her, as one person, Jackson. In reality it was Archer and Hawke playing Jackson. They both fall in love with her and she falls for him, them. Her ex is still hunting her and she wants to leave to keep him out of harms way but they can't let her go. It becomes obvious they can't keep lying to her but if they tell her will she leave?
