Mothers & Daughters

By Amazon Customer

I purchased the book because I love Diana Gabaldon's style of writing, and I have all her books in hardback as well as paperback. I found that the compilation of writers was well chosen. They come together to bring readers the joy and enlightenment of women brought together, not just as family members but as human beings. Each of the stories are told with a sense of love and not just a part of a book. The sharing of memories is touching as well. I am hoping that Diana's daughter has another book coming. She has a uniqueness that is charming!

always great stories

By Volunteer bluebell

Diana is my favorite author, and I have all of her books. This particular book was written by several women authors in conjunction with their daughters, and was full of great stories, each different in many ways, but fun to note the differences in styles, and all interesting.

Short stories and novelettes by several well known writers and their daughters

By MayeVan

Excellent overview of some of the regular best-seller list writers. Provides a bit of insight into their personal lives, but not intrusive. Entertaining.
