Awesome story and so sexy

By TFLReader

Who likes their romance and erotica with two super willing participants from the get go? I know I don't. It's always much better when there is some serious tension going on and someone is being pursued or has some baggage holding them back. Author Zoe Belle apparently understands this and depicts these elements well in Part 1 of "The Billionaire's Step". Julian is a self-made billionaire who still pines after the one that got away. Surprise, she (Cora) ends up in his office but has changed into a very strong-willed beauty. The attraction is definitely there and the encounters are super hot. Part 2 can't come soon enough for me.

Very good!

Decent length for serial novella. Surprisingly good character development and an actual story line. I read so many of these erotic based romances that they start to all be alike. Thus one stood out and was worth reviewing. Looking forward to reading part two of this story.

Great cliffhanger

I don't usually read chapter books but this one is written really well. It has an ironic twist that appeals to my sense of humor.
