By T. Rice

reasonably good guide but there is no rhyme or reason to their selections. For short stays it would be best to sample a little of each category a city has to offer and give readers a couple of options in there. This book lays out an itinerary and doesn't explain why those items were selected. Is it a cultural or historic site? Is it the most popular museum? Does it give the visitor some insight into how people live day to day there? None of that.

I would recommend this!

By Matt w

This is a great little book about Tokyo. Very informative and educational. Definitely take a look at this if you are planning on visiting.

Hardly any content, very few locations, flexible one size fits all plan

By A Customer

Totally inflexible suggested plan, linked to only one hotel where the author "recommends" you stay. Very little content in here.
