WIDE NEIGHBORHOODS;: A STORY OF THE FRONTIER NURSING SERVICE BY MARY BRECKINRIDGE PDF

"The autobiography of Mary Breckinridge, the remarkable founder of the Frontier Nursing Service. Riding out on horseback, the FNS nurse-midwives, the first of their profession in this country, proved that high mortality rates and malnutrition need not be the norm in rural areas. By their example and through their graduates, the FNS has exacted a lasting influence on family health care throughout the world."

This is the story of my family heritage, being served by the Frontier Nurses, in the mountains of eastern Kentucky. My mother told stories of their riding boots and horses. I have underlined the names of my family for my children to read. How blessed from God, for Mary and her vision.
